

Boston Feb. 5. 1773

Gentlemen

The Committee of Correspondence for this Town, acknowledge the receipt of your letter, together with your sensible resolves. — We are happy to find that our opinion of the good sense, honesty and resolution of our brethren in the other parts of the Province was not ill founded. Our oppressors must certainly be ashamed, for time to come, to represent this Country so basely ignorant and unpardonably negligent, of their best Interests as to be tame and easy while they are ravished from them.

The assurance of your readiness to concur with us in all constitutional measures for the redress of our intolerable Grievances, gives us new strength. We look upon the cause we are engaged in to be the cause of God and our Country and resolve to be therein vigilant, and active, and shall always depend upon our Brethren in Medway to be the same.

We are

Gentlemen

Your Friend, & Remembrance Sent.
